NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

PAUL CASSAR, M.D., D.P.M., F.R. Hist. H.(Lond), D.Litt (Hon. Causa), has carried out extensive research work in various aspects of Maltese History. His Medical History of Malta (London, 1965) earned him international repute and the unique Honorary Fellowship of the University. His works include various treatises on Medicine and Medical History among other subjects.

MICHAEL ELLUL, B.E.&A., A.&C.E., Dip. Arch. (Rome), F.R., Hist.S.(Lond.), was Head of the Antiquities Division of the Ministry of Works, official Maltese member on the Committee of the Architectural Heritage of the Council of Europe in Strasbourg and Lecturer in Architecture at the University of Malta. His many publications include Heritage of an Island (1975) and Fort St Elmo — A Brief History (1988).

ANTONIO ESPINOSA RODRIGUEZ, B.A.(Hons.)(Lond.), Dip.Lib., is a Curator in the Museums Department of Malta and has specialised in Maltese 19th century Art. He is currently setting up a Maritime Museum in Malta. His publications include Paintings at the Malta National Museum of Fine Arts (1990).

ALBERT GANADO, B.A., LL.D., is a regular contributor to the Britannia Book of the Year and the Encyclopaedia Britannica, has compiled a detailed bibliography on the history of legislation in Malta and has published extensively on the history of legislation, political history, postal history, cartography and art in Malta. His writings on the history of cartography in general include contributions published in Imago Mundi (London), Imago et Mensura Mundi (Rome) and Dictionary on the History of Cartography (Vienna). One of his latest publications is the co-authorship of Malta in British and French Caricature 1798-1815 (1989).

JOSEPH F. GRIMA, B.A.(Hons.), M.A., Dip.Educ. (Admin. & Mangt), includes among his publications Printing and Censorship in Malta 1642-1839 — A General Survey (1991).

JOSEPH M. PIROTTA, B.A., Ph.D. (Reading), is a Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Education at the local university. His main interest is local contemporary political history and he has published extensively on the subject. His first two volumes of Fortress Colony: The Final Act 1945-1964 (1987 and 1991) have been praised for their scholarship and objectivity. The final volume on the subject is currently in preparation.
